

Pearson Edexcel History of Art A Level
Revision Study Day at Barnsley House
Wednesday 13th April 2022

Premise

A one-day interactive revision study day on content for the Pearson Edexcel History of Art A Level with an experienced Art History teacher and examiner.

Nick Nelson has been teaching a range of History of Art syllabi since 1995. In addition, he teaches Easter Revision at Mander Portman Woodward in London, and he has tutored several A-Level and Pre-U students from many of the major public schools in England as well as Undergraduates at Bristol, Exeter, Edinburgh, York, Oxford Brookes, UCL and The Courtauld.

Provision

- All past papers and mark schemes
- Tips from an experienced examiner's perspective
- Revision notes and worksheets
- Model answers / student exemplar material
- Topic summary sheets
- Exam technique
- Writing skills
- Revision techniques
- Access to a huge range of support materials on Arcadia's website (password protected)

The Study Day:

08:45am Arrival: registration and coffee

09:00am Session 1: Paper 1, Visual Analysis (painting, sculpture and architecture)

10:30am Break: coffee

11:00am Session 2: Paper 1, Themes (identities, nature, war)

13:00pm Lunch (provided)

14:00pm Session 3: Period 1 (likely to be the Renaissance)

15:15pm Break: refreshments

15:30pm Session 4: Period 2 (likely to be a modern topic)

16:45pm Depart

Please note that the themes and periods taught will be based on student demand/study options taught at the schools represented.

The course is held in a very comfortable cinema space for the lecture-based delivery. Examination-specific content will be taught in a spacious boardroom adjacent the location.

Barnsley House (GL7 5EE) is a stunning venue located in the centre of the Cotswold village of Barnsley on the B4425 Cirencester to Bibury and Burford Road, four miles north-east of Cirencester.

Barnsley is just 90 minutes from West London by car, 60 minutes by train from Paddington to Kemble, and one hour from the Midlands.

The venue has car parking facilities.

Cost

£100 per person for the course, resources, refreshments and a lunch of sandwiches & chips

Booking

Contact Katie: katehewer@hotmail.com (07720775087)

Our website:

arcadia.education

